Advancing Observantly

Kevin Freeman / The Great Advance / Acts 17:16–34

The Great Advance is the continued spread of the gospel as hearts are drawn to salvation in Jesus Christ. We learn about that great advance in the book of Acts. We are part of that same advance today. Today’s message reminds us to be observant, finding opportunities to share the Good News of Jesus with others.

How people respond to the gospel

Go Deeper

Read Acts 17:16–34. Then talk with a friend this week and discuss the following questions:

1. What factors keep people from noticing gospel-related needs around them?
2. Where have you become spiritually “nose blind”? How can you develop greater sensitivity?
3. What leaves your spirit “greatly troubled”? How might God be prompting you to bring the hope of Christ in it?
4. Why do you think it's important to share Jesus with your friends after establishing common ground?
5. How can you integrate discussions about faith into the conversations you are already having with others?

For next Sunday, read Acts 18:1–23.
