 - Sunday, September 27th
 - 9:00am - Centennial Celebration Worship
 - 10:45am - Cake Reception in Boshier-Gray. (No Bible Study)
- UNIFIED MISSIONS – SEPTEMBER FOCUS: ALMA HUNT - One of the missions supported through our Unified Missions giving is the Alma Hunt offering ministries. The offering's theme this year is "Hope Rising," and it funds vital ministries of HerMission (formerly Women on Mission) and the BGAV, including disaster relief, local poverty alleviation, mental health support, and global church planting. Your gift to Unified Missions will help fund the Alma Hunt offering. Our Unified Missions giving goal for 2026 is $27,500, which is a separate offering from the tithes that support our budget. To give, just designate "Unified Missions" on your check or envelope.

Perserving Unity

Taking the Promised Land / Joshua 22:1-34

As the eastern tribes of Israel returned home, a potential crisis threatened to destroy the unity of the nation and remove God's blessing. We can learn about our commitment to unity through Israel's example.

Read Joshua 22:1-34. Then talk with a friend this week and discuss the following questions:

1. When your diligence for Christ is lagging, what symptoms in your life help you notice the need to improve?
2. What are some modern examples of social fragmentation that challenge our community's unity?
3. Why are we called both to exert influence on others and help reinforce their faith?
4. Where do you exert the most spiritual influence on others?
5. Who has been a positive influence on your walk with Christ?
